MAIL BAGS RIFLED.

German Ship's Officer Sentenced to Imprisonment.

One of the most extraordinary cases which have come before the public in Shanghai, says the Shunghai "Mercury, was the subject of a criminal trial in the German Consular Court when an officer of the mercantile marine was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for a series of robberies. The accused was Herman Witzler second officer of the steamer Meilee, and related in Court the evidence showed that he had practised thieving in the most systematic manner for the last year. Dr Ney and four Assessors heard the case.

...It was shown that the accused, who was arrested on November 1st, had on three occasions opened the German mail-bags which the Meil's was carrying between Shanghai and Hankow. As second officer of the ship Witzler had charge of the mails, and on the first occasion he had opened two letters addressed to the Russo-Chinese Bank in Peking, abstracting $583 from one of these and $420 from the other. He 'had then inserted pieces of newspaper and returned them to the mail-bag. When the letters arrived at their destination the theft was discovered, but until the arrest of Witzler no trace of the thief could be found. On another occasion Witzler had opened one of the mail-bags and purloined a kodak and other photographic apparatus, while a third case "occurred when he stole a pair of gold sleeve-links. His method had evidently been to heat's knife, cut off the scals, and he had affixed the sealing-wax once more.

after abstracting the contents of the purcel . In addition to the thefts from the mail bags three other charges were laid against Witzler. One of those was that while passenger aboard the N.D.L. steamer Goeben he had stolen a pair of field-glasses belonging to Det.-Sergt. Reeves of the Municipal Police." The second was the theft of a silver cigarette case froma passonger on board the Meilee, and the third was the appropriation to his own use of a Winchester carbine and revolver which had been put in his postession while on the

After bearing the evidence the Court found Witzler guilty and passed sentences amounting in all to two years imprisonment Witzler is at present confined in the British Gaol, but will in all probabilty be sent to Germany to andergo his sentence.

(From Our Own Ourespondent) Lowpow, December 1. The arrival in this country of Prince Tsai Hsun, Admiral Bah, and other Far Eastern notables shifts the centre of Chinese naval interest from Peking to London. For nearly two years the leading shipbuilding firms of the world have maintained special representatives in the Chinese capital in the fear that the Imperia Government might suddenly make up its mind about the naval reorganisation which has been in the air for so long. But, as the sending abroad of this Commission goes to show, the Chinese are in hurry to decide the matter. Admiral Sah has made some redispositions of the existing naval forces, but the larger measures of reform have been deferred until the naval administrations of Europe and America have been studied on the spot. The British Admiralty are doing everything they can to assist the Commissioners, and when the party has visited the contract yards. The Prince and his colleagues are being made a lot of because China are now back in London. Americans and Germans are also in evidence, although they have not come specially to meet the Chinese visitors. They are here about the contracts for the Argentine armoured shipsfor which I understand the Americans are making a particularly strong bid. After all, King Mancel is not to marry an English Princess, according to the latest Court news. But during his visit to England he has won golden opinions from al persons who made his acquaintance. Some of them have described him to me as genuinely a very nice young fellow, with -out-an-ounce of side, unassuming, good natured and amiable. In certain quarters there is a disposition to criticise the matri monial aspirations of King Manoel. It is hinted that to share the Portuguese three would be an anxious and dangerous business, while its stability is regarded as open to question. For a Princess of the British

Royal house it is roundly stated that delightful boy as he undoubtedly is, King

Manoel is negreat catch. I learn from an official source that, as a consequence of his recent visits to London. Paris and Rome, M. Milovanovitch, the Servian Minister for Foreign Affairs, has addressed to the British, French and Italian Governments a note which, it is thought may have an important influence upon the immediate future of the situation in the Balkans. Until a few weeks ago the several Great Powers were quite averse from giving countenance to the raising of money by Servia, but it is now highly probable, owing to explanations which M. Milovanovitch arranged, part for internal development. and the residue for the better equipment of the army. ... Mies, Shelah O'Neill, an Irish lady, ... who recently startled Scotland Yard by apply ing for a licence to drive a motor cab in London, is preparing to make an aeroplane flight across the Irish Channel. Her project is certainly sensational.

"If the weather is good," she said, "I shal probably make the attempt to pay · flying' visit to my home in Ireland about Christmas time. The machine I shall use is now being built. It is partly my ow invention, and is a biplane, with several improvements on existing types. Built of spruce, which is quite flexible, the seroplane will weigh only 200 lbs, and will carry ten gallons of petrol. In four weeks time I shall begin trial flights."

Miss U'Neill understands all about the mechanism of motor cars, and for a long time past she has been keenly studying

The feature of the Christmas trade this year is the sudden boom in model and toy scroplanes in the London shops. No other toy stands a chance against the model flying machine. One firm has given up a large floor for the purpose of constructing a miniature aerodrome in which model machines are tested in flight before sale. These machines, copied from famous seroplanes, range in price from one pound to £10, but a flyer which will really fly can be bought for a shilling.

Press circles report that we may expect Mr Robert Wynne, the ex-United States Consul General in London, again over here as one of the able correspondents of Ameri. can papers. Before Mr Wynne became Postmaster-General of the United States he had a long and brilliant journalistic careor, being also president of the Gridiron Club at Washington. He is so intimately acquainted now at first hand with London and its celebrities that his knowledge, combined with his great gifts of sound judgment and common sense, should make him a valuable chief for the London office of some great American newspaper. hear he has just concluded a quiet trip to

ALL'S WELL. "ALL's well with the world" is evident ly the soothing message which M Picson, the French Minister for Foreign Affairs, is able to give to Europe as the last days of 1909 hurry to their close. He is in an exceptional position for making a true forecast of th political weather immediately ahead and his remarks will carry the weight they deserve. Good understandings he says, exist between France and Great Britain, thus strengthening the Angle-Franco entente cordiale, and although the Balkan and Cretan questions are yet unsettled, still they are not so painfully strained as they were this time last year. Perhaps with Europe an armed camp and with all the leading nations steadily augmenting the size and potentialities of their Navies it sounds rather hypocritical to speak of the condition of affairs as one of proeneer of the great German thinker of the devastations of Waltenstran, said that warrior found a city and left it a deser -and called it peace. Is the general peace of Europe to-day as hollow as that pretence? Who shall say? But putting this aspect of the question saide, for the moment at any rate, one cannot hely admitting that a cursory glance a while the distractions and untold borrors war are kept far removed from the region of possibilities. The growth of a better feeling between Great Britain and Russia is also a hopeful augury New Year meeting at the Theatre Roy of better things to come. Now that Englishmen are losing their dread o a Russian descent on India, they are allowing their minds to perceive that there is plenty of space within Central Asia and Siberia for Russia to carry out the most grandiose schemes of colonization without encroaching upon the spheres of other people, while the increasing efficiency of our Indian defences is also in this regard a factor of moment. We know that there are many people who will not share the cheerful optimism of M. Promos. VROX MOLES

Once more the Christman Besson has come and gone, with the low and feetiletty The Christman Tree at the Kulanger Club on Christmas Eve was a greet success. and the timely visit of Santa Clause at the adspictous moment was managed splendidly to the complete mystification of the majority of the large number of children present. Mr.F. B. Mareball, of Mesers Tait and Co. who acted the part of Father Christmas, played the role in his wonted manner, and gave away his welcome gifts with great eclat, and to the huge joy of all those who received them. There was a large attendance of parents and other friends of the children, and the entire affair was the cause of great enjoyment to everybody. CHRISTMAN SERVICES.

The more serious side of Christmas was not neglected, either by us exiles from home, or the Chinese Christians. Bishop Price of Foochow came to us on the Wednesday, and conducted the following lysk services on Xmas Day and the day after On Xman Day, Holy Communion at 8 a.m. Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11 a.m.: on Sunday, 28th, inst., Morning Prayer at 11 a.m., followed by Boly Communion. There was also an Episcopal Service on the Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, when the Rev T. C. Brown of the C.M.S. preached. The Cholr had a good deal of hard work with so many services, but sequitted itself credit. ably, under the guidance of the Organist, Mr F. Ewart Joseland.

A WILKING MATCH. The Annual Walking Match was entered upon with great gusto, and was won by Mr Veir. with Mr Berriet, a Frenchmans second. It started at 9.30 a.m. sharp from the doors of the Customs Club on Christmas morning, and a crowd of people were gathered together to see the start, and even more were ready waiting at the same place to view the finish. Perfect weather made the affair a great success.

A CYMERANA MEETING. A Gymkana Meeting is to be held on January 1st, 1910, on the Recreation Ground, Kulangsu, starting at 2 p.m. is to be provided on the Lawn. The total subscriptions have come to more than is needed, so that the Committee have decided to use the balance for Chinese Athletic Sports to be held during the Chinese New Year Holidays in February next. GOLF COMPETITIONS.

The Secretary of the Golf Club announces Competitions in Golf for both Ladies and Gen lemon to take place early in the New Year. From all of which above announcements it will be seen that we in Amoy are very much alive. Indeed seldom remember so much life and interest among the residents at our Port as during the year now closing. More interest is shown in sport than ever before, and as some thought for even higher things, (The only direct train service, without transhipment, also shortest and fastest route) it may be added that the attendances at our Church Services have been considerably above the average this year. At our Ohristmas Service there was hardly a vacant seat, though it is only fair to say that this was partly due to some seats having been taken outside to make room for the decorations, as well as to the attendance of a number of Chinese Girls who know English. By the way, a word of praise is due to those who looked after the decorations in Union Church. Everybody was praising the attractiveness of these, and the care and labour expended to obtain so excellent

> THE CHINESE CHURCH. The large Church on Kulangsu known as the "Hekimtong," was decorated by the Chinese Christians in readiness for Services held in it both on Christmas Day and the Sunday after, and these were most effective. if somewhat gaudy from a Western standpoint Good congregations attended, and the various preachers made the best of the occasion. At the Kulangsu Anglo-Chinese College, festivities and special services were held, and large audiences gathered together both to the sports and evening meetings. The building was brilliantly illuminated for several evenings, and made a conspicuous object in the moonlight. Perfect weather has been our lot this Christmas, and one wonders whother it can be beaten the world over. Certainly one knows there are thousands in the home lands who would revol in the glorious sunshine and magnificent moon-
